

Dear Agent,

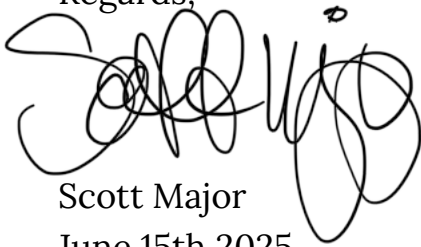

Sarah Alexander is a hard working, kind and bubbly person. She's a great actor, very easy to work with and skilled at taking direction.

Her love of the craft, work ethic which is second to none and overall joy is contagious because of these exceptional traits I have no doubt that she will do very well in this industry.

I work with her on a weekly to fortnightly basis on auditions and her main focus is always improving and growing as an actor. Sarah's disciplined, punctual and prioritizes her auditions, character work and career.

I have no hesitation in recommending her to your agency.

Regards,
